

← September On

"September On's guitar-intensive sound recalls the tough, alt-rock blast of The Verve Pipe as well as other '90s alt-rock acts like Tonic & Better Than Ezra."

- Kevin Ransom (Ann Arbor News)

" Bossenberger's soft-toned mid-range traverses some heartbreaking territories, while Malott's guitar burns like a wildfire over Grosvenor and Whitman's ever-steady rhythms."

- Jeff Milo (Current – Washtenaw County)

"This Ann Arbor alt-rock band pushes all the right alt-rock buttons on its debut CD."

- John Sinkevics (The Grand Rapids Press)

"A new Michigan band armed with great songs and strong melodies."

- Brian Vander Ark (The Verve Pipe)

"September On's straight-ahead, windows down, volume up, bop-pop evokes Danny Hutton Hitters sensibilities... perfect for a summer hang."

- Kate Bradley (Outlandos Music)

"Their songs are infused with a quality reminiscent of Train or Tonic, reminding the listener that pop music can have heart."

- Marti Jackson (WTGZ – Auburn, AL)
